

CONNECT TO THINGS TO DO

Autumn favorites handpicked for you.

There is nothing quite like the visual splendor of fall in the Hudson Valley. Whether you are looking for dramatic mountain overlooks, quiet nature preserves or crisp autumn trail hikes, here are our top local picks for Oct. 28 through Nov. 3. Editor's Pick: Dracula: A special immersive screening event with live music at The Angel Nyack. Step into the eerie atmosphere of this converted historic church for an immersive pre-show experience followed by a screening of the iconic 1931 Universal horror classic, accompanied live on the pipe organ by Library of Congress silent film historian Ben Model.
