flagpole
THE COLORBEARER OF ATHENS, GEORGIA

Art Around Town

Athens printmaker Amanda Burk will display works combining traditional printmaking techniques with hand-drawn and painted elements at the State Botanical Garden of Georgia. An opening reception will be held May 10 from 2–4 p.m.

by Libba Beaucham May 6, 2026

LYNDON HOUSE ARTS CENTER (211 Hoyt St.) "Somethings" features small sculpture works by Ivy Laurel Anderson made from discarded mass-produced objects. May 14–July 18. • A Lobby installation by artist and STEAM educator Maria Nissan, "18,443 Souls: A Metamorphosis of Coffee Culture," features works inspired by the multicultural connections to coffee that are composed using coffee and tea filters touched by 18,443 people in Athens. Through May 8. • The 51st Juried Exhibition features 130 works by 91 artists selected by Michelle Yun Mapplethorpe of the Katonah Museum of Art in New York. Through May 16. • "Surface Tension" features artwork by Erika Diamond and prosthetics by Chelsa Lillo that explore protection, identity and the fragility of the human body. Through June 27.