

WH

WESTCHESTER HOME

SUMMER STYLE

Fresh Ideas
For Outdoor Living

westchestermagazine.com SUMMER 2026 $5.99 6 2>

0 74820 07393 3

Liz Glynn:
"Open House"
at Storm
King Art
Center

Exhibits That Inspire

Five design-oriented shows are nearby this summer—catch them while you can.

"Diplomacy at Home"

Katonah Museum of Art
Katonah

Get a glimpse of colonial life—this collection displays fine art, furniture, and decorative objects that filled the homes of New York historical figures like John Jay and Alexander Hamilton.

June 28–October 4

katonahmuseum.org

Justin Perlman: "Sculpture on the Patio"

Hammond Museum & Japanese Stroll Garden

North Salem

This breathtaking organization has a new display on its grounds; the local artist's work includes abstract sculptures made from wood, stone, and metal.

Open now

hammondmuseum.org

Liz Glynn: "Open House"

Storm King Art Center
New Windsor

Make a day of it: Explore Storm King's 500 rolling acres of large-scale outdoor sculpture work, and check out Glynn's reconstructed couches, footstools, armchairs, and arched windows fashioned from concrete and based on images of a Louis XIV-style Gilded Age ballroom.

Through November 9

collections.stormking.org

"Flower Power"

New York Botanical Garden
The Bronx

A trip back to the groovy 1960s is just a Metro-North ride away. Immerse yourself in clever flower displays while taking in photography and visual art from the era of peace.

Through October 18

nybg.org

Justin Perlman:
"Sculpture on the Patio" at Hammond
Museum &
Japanese Stroll
Garden

"Inside Lucie's Wardrobe"

Caramoor

Katonah

Original Caramoor resident Lucie Rosen's clothing and accessories will be on display, showing off her penchant for Venetian textiles and early 20th century NYC designers.

Open through the summer
caramoor.org

—Alli Dempsey

CLOCKWISE FROM TOP LEFT: JEFFREY JENKINS (2); COURTESY OF JUSTIN PERLMAN